

In a hotly contested election, it is illegal to use the public airwaves to broadcast a smear campaign against one candidate, as Sinclair Media is doing by forcing its stations to air an anti-Kerry program of lies and innuendo on prime time. You, the FCC, have the responsibility to manage those airwaves for the public good. To allow this to go forward is wrong and an abrogation of your responsibility to the people of America.